Embracing accountability for her disease, Christine Grininger got in touch with the real cause of her cancer. She did something about it. Beyond doctors, beyond medicine, beyond conventional treatment, Christine took charge of her recovery, and now she stands in wellness.

Christine implemented a comprehensive mind/body connection that can be replicated. Utilizing self-examination combined with complementary holistic techniques, she healed much more than just the physical symptoms of cancer.

"I'm Done with Cancer" is intended to help you learn how to face not just cancer, but any lingering, chronic health condition you might be experiencing. You too can become empowered to examine the underlying belief systems and behaviors that are the real source of disease.
