Seasons of Prayer Sherri Waas Shunfenthal

Seasons of Prayer offers poetic prayers and reflections for all the Jewish Holidays. Seasons change throughout the year as do the seasons of our lives. We plant in the warm Spring air, cultivate through the Summer, gather and reap in Fall. In Winter, deep stillness allows for a burst of spring growth. Judaism's holidays follow nature's seasons and celebrates the many seasons of our lives. There are seasons of joy, seasons of sorrow, seasons of ripeness, seasons of deepening and slow maturity, time of being a sage, time of being a learner, time for growth, time for refreshing peace, and always a time of renewal. People of all religions can find inspiration and cause for deep reflection in these poems. Come, travel through Seasons of Prayer...
