When Sabella Tesano walked away from her husband Isak, their lives headed down twin paths of darkness. Sabella's shame over a horrific discovery wreaked havoc on her mind and body. The darkness in Isak's life had manifested in a more sinister fashion. He was no longer the even tempered peacemaker of his volatile family. While Sabella blamed herself for his brutal transformation, she believed he was better off away from her maybe...hating her. Isak however, harbored no such feelings. In his mind, Sabella was still his wife and he had every intention of getting her back. Explanations would be required and Belle knew she could never share what she'd learned about herself and the ugly truth of her existence.
