Get into the Christmas spirit with these two seasonal romances, featuring happy ever after endings:

The Christmas Cowboy: Following the breakup of her relationship with her fiance, Sarah decides to go on the skiing trip they had planned, on her own. But, caught in a heavy snowfall, she loses control of her car, and spins off the road. Luckily, she is rescued by the handsome, rugged cowboy, Randy Guthrie, who takes her back to his place. Following initial friction between the couple, including a spanking from Randy when Sarah puts herself in danger, they soon realise their love for each other. It looks like this may be the best Christmas ever for both of them...

Christmas in Montana: Mary Jo's mother is hell-bent on her daughter marrying Franklin Tyler Howard and being a Christmas bride, but Mary Jo is having none of it. With the help of her grandmother, she makes plans to disappear for an extended period, arranging to stay in a remote cabin at a hunting and fishing camp in Montana. Here she meets and falls for her landlord, a sexy but somewhat stern alpha male who is used to giving orders. The attraction between them is mutual and the two begin a passionate relationship that includes both 'good girl' and disciplinary spankings. On Christmas morning, however, the couple are in for a surprise...
