Do you know that you are powerful and strong? Have you ever thought that you have all the potential to realize your biggest dreams? Were you aware that you can be, do and have whatever you can imagine?

With a newly bought backpack, three hundred dollars, no plans and one-way ticket, young explorer Dmytro Ivanov embarked on a six-month journey to India to get answers for his questions. Adventures and challenges followed: hitchhiking on one of the most dangerous roads in the world, trekking along the borders of Pakistan and Tibet; practicing a ten day course of silent meditation in the Himalaya mountains; attending teachings with his Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama; building a vertical garden from recycled soda bottles to grow vegetables for Tibetan refugees, and even working as a doorman at Indian weddings.

Dmytro transforms all his experience and knowledge into a fable about a fictional character named John Scotland. Whatever author has learned during his journey to the East, whatever secrets and mysteries saints, gurus, and sages have revealed to him, you will learn all these in less than 40 minutes, following uplifting path of John Scotland page by page.
