Fictile: The Recovered Memories of an Alzheimer's Patient Robert Graham

Fictile refers to pottery or plastic, and it describes the capacity to be molded or shaped. "Fictile" presents the recovered memories of Robert Graham, a middle aged man who has early onset Alzheimer's disease. His journals are confusing as he tries to sort out his life with three wives. Did he really meet his third wife in a brothel in Nevada at a wild evening with twelve women when they mistook him for the new owner? Did he really father three children for a lesbian couple while living in an arranged marriage to a college friend from Nigeria who was trying to escape an arranged marriage back home?
