The Ancient History of the Near East Henry R. Hall

"Of all regions of the earth probably the Near East has had and will have the greatest interest for us, for from it sprang our civilization... There took place the mingling of the Indo-European from the North with the Mediterranean of the South, which produced the culture, art, and law of the Greeks and Romans; and there, on the Semitic verge of Asia, the home of religious enthusiasms from the beginning, arose the Christian faith. And if the Near East has from the first seen the mingling of the ideas of the East and West, it has also seen their secular struggle for mastery..." - Henry R. Hall
