Willows on the Windrush (Sagas of a Kindred Heart, Book 2) Doris Elaine Fell

Fiction lovers have come to expect much from Doris Elaine Fell: a compelling heroine, heady romance, and riveting intrigue, all set against the backdrop of a fabulous destination. In Willows on the Windrush, readers will experience the charm of England and the Cotswolds. This second installment of the Sagas of a Kindred Heart series unfurls a suspenseful story of one woman's encounter with the secrets and possibilities of her past.

At thirty, Sydney Barrington is a successful executive, the envy of some for her wealth and beauty, feared by others for her drive. When she learns she has inherited Broadshire Manor from a stranger, Sydney is only too glad to escape the entanglements of her latest romance. When she arrives in the Cotswolds, though, Sydney discovers a village untouched by the passage of time and villagers hesitant to welcome her. She also finds that mysteries abound at Broadshire Manor.
