New from the publishers of the acclaimed Eagles Over the Pacific series comes a collection of short World War II stories, both from their published and unpublished books. These stories touch on various aspects of life during World War II for men of the 345th, 22nd, 312th, 43rd, 38th, and 3rd bomb groups, ranging from a hurricane that ripped up half the 22nd Bomb Group's camp to the perspective of an RAAF pilot training with the 43rd Bomb Group. This ebook features a 312th Bomb Group color profile, high quality photos, plus extra photos from upcoming books. Some of the content in this ebook has been republished from the International Historical Research Associates blog.
