The Last of the Chiefs, A Story of the Great Sioux War

Two orphaned farm boys from Illinois try their luck out West. They board a wagon train with a native American guide named Bright Sun who intrigues them. Before long, however, the wagon train is attacked by Indians. While the brothers escape, they find themselves isolated in the midst of Sioux country and must learn to hunt and trap in a life or death situation. This is an inspirational story, written a century ago.

My Captive, A novella (1902)

Caught between a battle and a woman, what is a man to do? She returned his gaze with great, pure eyes, which seemed to say he was a villain, a monster; yet he was doing his exact duty, that of a faithful soldier in the cause of the Continental Congress.
