Hands-On Faith: 66 Projects, Activities, and Crafts for Children Mary Doerfler Dall

Hands-On Faith builds on the simple fact that children learn best by doing, Mary Doerfler Dall offers sixty-six projects, activities, and crafts to help children in grades two through six really take to heart their lessons of faith.

Organized by chapter themes, Hands-On Faith is a perfect resource to complement any religious education program, offering hands-on material for lessons involving prayer, liturgy, the Bible, Catholic legends and lore, holy days and church seasons. Each of the activities is self-contained with suggestions for adapting and extending it for individual and classroom use.

Requiring a minimum of supplies, most of the units are designed for easy accomplishment...a little tape, glue or staples helps create a St. Joseph's toolbox, Noah's Ark or a windblown helicopter that floats prayers down from the sky.

Hands-On Faith is perfect for classroom use, and also a great work-along tool for parents who wish to impart lessons of faith to their children in fun ways that kids are bound to love.
