Saved: How I Survived a Religious Sex Cult Leigh Larkin

This auto-biography of an American girl growing up in the sixties/seventies details a quest for truth and destiny which took her to the depths of deception and ultimately, captivity. The unexpected circumstances which brought about her rescue and restoration to health and wholeness, brings hope to those in seemingly impossible situations. She provides useful resources and encouragement to friends and loved ones who might be on the verge of giving up on someone who seems to be past " the point of no return".
