You've laughed and cried along with Bridget Jones and Carrie Bradshaw; now meet their real-life counterpart in Imogen. "The Single Girl's Guide" is a tongue-in-cheek but practical manual on life management for the bachelorette. Make the most of unattached living with free spirit Imogen as your guide, revealing amusing anecdotes and advice on how to juggle bosses, colleagues and friends. Learn about managing your parents and distractions of the male variety, including the perils of modern communication by e-mail and text when dating. It helps you keep the stresses and strains of singledom at bay and realise that the secret of successful life management lies in not letting those around you know that they're being managed. You have chosen not to settle for someone who doesn't understand how amazing you are. You are whole, not half, and you don't have to share your space. Armed with this book, you can steer a safe passage through the stormy waters, limit the seasickness, and enjoy the trip.
