What Goes Around (Mahoney and Shaw Book 1) Tina Lencioni

Thomas P. Mahoney is a hard-boiled private detective from the mean streets of Chicago. Felicity Donlevy sells designer dresses in an elite boutique in Seattle. Together, they're trying to do the right things for the right reasons - but it's not going to be easy.

What Goes Around is the first of a series featuring a very unusual duo of private detectives. Reunited after a long absence and a complicated history, Felicity and Mahoney agree to help the desperate Richardsons, a father and son in immediate danger of losing their business, and the equally desperate Jan Merkel, a victim of a cat burglar. With the best of intentions, Felicity and Mahoney give working together another try, despite an abundance of obstacles, a few personal challenges, and some very nosy ghosts.

Funny and fast-paced with a generous helping of the supernatural, What Goes Around is a lighthearted mystery featuring two very different people, forever bound by the enduring ties of friendship.
