For American Catholics before and after Vatican II, Guardini was best known for his writings on the liturgy and his profound meditation on the life and person of Jesus Christ, The Lord; but in Europe, he was for decades an influential spiritual, intellectual, and cultural guide, known for his deep, clear vision of the church and the world. The Essential Guardini contains some of the most influential writings of Romano Guardini. Selections have been organized around our world, Jesus Christ, the Church, and liturgy and worship.
