"You have a hundred and twenty horsepower brain and a runabout body," said the great physician. "I have come," answered Randall Byrne faintly, "for the solution of a problem, not for the statement thereof." "I'm not through," said the great physician. "Among other things you are a damned fool." Randall Byrne here rubbed his eyes. "What steps do you suggest that I consider?" he queried. The great physician spat noisily. "Marry a farmer's daughter," he said brutally. "But," said Randall Byrne vaguely. "I am a busy man and you've wasted ten minutes of my time," said the great physician, turning back to his plate glass window. "My secretary will send you a bill for one thousand dollars. Good-day." - The Night Horseman by Max Brand
