It couldn't be..

I knew it was wrong to want him, He was dangerous, a criminal, wild. But the dark look in his eyes when I saw him again, the way his hard muscles looked in that shirt, I was unable to deny my need of him.

Why did he have to be so sexy when he stared at me in that way?
Why can't I forget about the way he pulls me against his chest.

Do I even want to?

With all of the reasons why not, I still can't think of anyone else.
I must be his.

It shouldn't be...

I've never been one for happily ever after. It didn't exist in my world.

My specialty was the now, the right now, hard fast and then gone. It was how I preferred it, never getting close to a woman.

Until I came back and saw Cassie.

I couldn't have her, she was off limits. But I wanted her so badly. She had grown up, filling out her clothes since I had seen her last.

It was clear that Cassie was now a woman, a very beautiful one. All I could think of was how he would feel underneath me.

Her eyes tell me that she wants the same thing and when she offers herself up, I am unable to stop myself.

I must have her and claim her as my own.
No matter who stands in our way.
