The book lists their names, ranks and units, as well as Biographical information on the majority of the men listed. It also lists "mini-genealogies" of Spanish Colonial Alabama (1780-1813) descendants, which traces them back to the original Spanish Settler. This is a groundbreaking work on an ignored aspect of the Civil War and the participation of Ethnic Minorities in the Confederate Military. This is an excellent resource for anyone interested in the Civil War, the Confederate Military, State of Alabama History, Southern History and United States History. It is a "Treasure Trove" of information for Genealogists and Family History enthusiasts and is a true "Alabama History Classic."
